

monopoly in anything is a bad idea, now they want to control , even more all that the viewing public take in. I think not. To allow this asks me to question the sanity of the media owners and their families and if they have friends , then there friends as well.

Come on people wake up and see what is being done to us as we sleep.